New Radio Show Highlights Hot Topics in Gun Rights

This week's show examines...

Why the American left is to blame for Texas church shootings

This Sunday (November 12), "Guns, Politics and Freedom" will examine the tragedy at the First Baptist Church in Sutherland Springs, how it was mitigated, and how repetition of the event can be avoided.

Drawing on 23 years as a leader in the gun rights movement, F. Paul Valone is hosting a new show entitled "Guns, Politics & Freedom" on Sundays at 5:00 PM Eastern time as part of the "Sunday Night Political Power Block" on conservative talk station WFBT, 106.7 (Wilmington, NC), which streams live nationally at www.WilmingtonBigTalker.com

Recent "Guns, Politics & Freedom" episodes have included interviews with Gun Owners of America Executive Director Larry Pratt, Second Amendment Foundation Executive Director Alan Gottlieb, widely published concealed handgun gun researcher Dr. John R. Lott of the Crime Prevention Research Center, renowned defensive firearms instructors John and Vicki Farnam of Defense Training International, self-defense legal expert Andrew Branca ("The Law of Self-Defense") and constitutional law professor Greg Wallace ("The Second Amendment in the courts: What comes after Heller?").
